

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING + TECHNOLOGY

BILTMORE PARK, ASHEVILLE

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN ENGINEERING TECHNOLOGY

TECHNICAL AND MANAGEMENT TRAINING FOR WORKING ENGINEERS

Offered by WCU's College of Engineering + Technology, the Master of Science in Engineering Technology combines qualitative approaches and quantitative techniques to teach skills and competencies that can advance your career. This Asheville-based, part-time program is designed for professionals already working in industry.

“DECIDING TO PURSUE AN [MSET] DEGREE WAS THE BEST CAREER CHOICE I HAVE EVER MADE. IT WASN'T EASY, BUT IT WAS MOST REWARDING AND ABSOLUTELY WORTH ALL THE EFFORT. I WAS ABLE TO GAIN CONFIDENCE AND ACQUIRE SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE RELEVANT AND NECESSARY FOR MY CAREER SUCCESS. SINCE GRADUATING, DOORS HAVE OPENED AND CAREER OPPORTUNITIES HAVE HAPPENED.”

-TANIA LAVECK,
SENIOR DIVISION SALES
ENGINEER, EATON

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Part-time program
- Designed for working professionals
- Classes meet in Asheville just one night a week
- Complete the program in as little as two years
- Project work related to current employment

A SAMPLE OF TOPICS COVERED

- Automation Systems
- Finance and Economics
- Innovation in Engineering Design
- Lean Six Sigma for Manufacturing and Design
- Directed Project

To learn more about this program, attend one of our monthly open house events or visit us at mset.wcu.edu

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Paul Yanik, Program Director / 828.227.2166 tel
pyanik@wcu.edu / set.wcu.edu / graduate.wcu.edu

