

Rubric for Minority Activity

Above Standard	At Standard	Below Standard	Unsatisfactory
Includes all of At Standard and goes beyond. Includes active participation. Student was clearly and obviously a minority. Activity requires significant participation for 2 or more hours. Reflection is well-written without grammar, spelling, and punctuation errors.	Meets all of the following: Describes an active event of at least one hour where the student is a significant minority. Reflection is 3-4 pages. Short description of the activity (name of the event, where and when it occurred, activities that occurred, length of time spent at the event) and your interaction with the participants. Your emotional reaction to the event. How did participation in this event raise your awareness about the need to include all learners? Describe the lessons you learned that may affect how you include diverse learners in your classroom. Reflection contains 3 or less spelling, punctuation, or grammar errors.	Contains one or two of the problems listed below: Reflection is less than two pages or more than four pages. Reflection fails to address one or more of the areas. Activity is less than one hour. Activity is passive. Student is not a significant minority. Reflection contains more than two spelling, punctuation, or grammar errors.	Contains more than two of the problems listed below: Reflection is less than two pages or more than four pages. Reflection fails to address one or more of the areas. Activity is less than one hour. Activity is passive. Student is not a significant minority. Reflection contains more than four spelling, punctuation, or grammar errors.