

To find the Camp Building from the campus entrance, bear right coming into campus and pass the Information Station. Turn right across the metal bridge; it will be your first right after the Information Station. Take a left in front of the building and the Division of Educational Outreach will be the last double entrance of the building. You may park in any visitor space or space with white lines.

